FOREWORD

THE WAY OF THE WORLD Ella Wheeler Wilcox

Laugh, and the world laughs with you,
Weep, and you weep alone,
For the brave old earth must borrow its mirth—
But has trouble enough of its own.
Sing and the hills will answer,
Sigh, it is lost on the air;
The echoes rebound to a joyful sound
And shrink from voicing care.

Rejoice, and men will seek you,
Grieve, and they turn and go;
They want full measure of your pleasure,
But they do not want your woe.
Be glad, and your friends are many,
Be sad, and you lose them all;
There are none to decline your nectared wine,
But alone you must drink life's gall.

Feast, and your halls are crowded,
Fast, and the world goes by.
Forget and forgive—it helps you to live,
But no man can help you die;
There's room in the halls of pleasure
For a long and lordly train,
But one by one, we must all march on
Through the narrow isle of pain.

DEDICATION

It is very doubtful if anyone has contributed more to the Spiritual development of the people of Rowan County for the past fifty years than has the late Rev. C. P. Fisher, D.D.

Rev. Fisher spent more than forty years of his ministerial service here in our county. The last fifteen being spent as our next door neighbor.

Rev. Fisher's love for school children and his encouraging words spoken to the teachers as they artived and returned from their day's work in the classroom will never be forgotten.

Greater love hath no man than this, that he give his life for God's Kingdom. Truly it can be said of Rev. Fisher that he gave his life for the spiritual development of the boys and girls of Rowan County.

In appreciation for this great service rendered by Rev. Fisher, we, the class of 1946, dedicate this yearbook.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

America is great! Why is America great? America is great because of her three great Democratic Institutions. The home, the school, and the church,

Truly the home is the fountain of our civilization. From it springs the life of our present and future generations. Upon the parents of our homes rest the responsibility of giving early training to the children of that home. If this training is neglected, the first great link in the chain which makes America great is weakened.

The school is the next great link in the chain. To our forefathers we owe a great debt of gratitude for the establishment of our public school system which we have today. Upon the shoulders of our classroom teachers rest the responsibility of training the youth of our land, for its citizens of tomorrow. If America is to continue to be great, it will depend largely upon the sound thinking and efficiency of our classroom teachers.

The church is the third link in our chain. The decay and full of all nations and empires can be traced to the decay and full of the church. Man, in order to advance, must continue to trust in God and the church.

No nation will become greater than its homes, its schools, and its churches.

Let us do our part to keep America great,

T. F. BOSTIAN, Superinfendent

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

What do you reflect? We all reflect that at which we look and those with whom we associate, if we do it long enough,

The home, which should be symbolic of everything that is good and noble in life, will bring forth high ideals, sympathetic understanding, and deep affection and appreciation for our parents and fellow associates.

There are those across the way who look at our lives. In some of us they see love and kindness, in some only successful business operators; in others social leaders; in others, one who

What do your friends see in you? What do you redect?
If our dreams of a better world are to be realized and the day hastened when men shall know war no more, in some way our generation, too, must catch a hint of eteralty. We must look to sources of strength higher than ourselves. We must cultivate a sense of God's presence and under the inspiration of fellowship with Him learn to do His will. Human capacities are great but not great enough, nor good enough without God. Therefore the Church is the one lostitution on earth whose male purpose is to bring God and man together. Through Worship, Bible Sludy, Christian fellowship, Helpful sgrvice, we can find God.

The school has a great task to perform to the children from all walks of life. We are to help the children find their place and enrich their lives and make life worthwhile. We hope that the instructors in the Landis School have contributed by these special efforts of sympathetic cooperation and loyal devotion to the many tasks that are ours to perform.

Toll, I repent—toll either of the brain, or of the heart, or of the hand, is the only true manhood, the only true noblity.

May I ask again, what do you reflect?

H. A. McCREARY, Principal

The football team was very successful this year according to the weight of the team. The team won fifty per cent of the games they played and the greatest victory of the season was the defeat of China Grove. BOYS' BASKETBALL

The mighty Yellow Jackets of 1945-46 have had a very successful season this year. They have defeated every team in the Rowan County conference. Next year's team will be the same as this. The boys' team, led by H. A. McCreary, had the determination to win or else and the determination ended with a season of victories
